

- This guarantee will be void if the door, window or Yale hardware component has been incorrectly fitted, adjusted, maintained or operated.
- The guarantee will not apply if the door, window or Yale hardware component has been subjected to abuse, vandalism, and negligence or subjected to forces and stresses beyond recommended levels prior to the break-in.
- The guarantee will only be valid providing no modifications, repairs or alterations have been made without prior approval.
- Yale recommends that your door and window hardware is lubricated at least twice a year, please ask your installer for advice on maintenance.
- The decision of the Yale service engineer and Polyframe is final in respect of:
 - » Whether the door or window has been maintained correctly
 - » Whether the door or window has been modified, repaired or altered without approval from Yale

- » Whether entry has been gained through the failure of a Yale component
- When the break-in occurred, the doors and/or windows must have been securely closed and locked. Windows must not be left in the night vent position.
- All claims are subject to the property being occupied and furnished.
- The guarantee is applicable to residential properties in the UK and Eire only.
- Commercial properties are excluded from the Polyframe Protection Promise.
- The claim and all supporting documentation must have been notified and submitted to Polyframe within the time limits noted above. Failure to comply with these time limits will invalidate the claim.
- The guarantee is non-transferable to a new owner if the property is sold.
- Subject to the conditions above, this Polyframe Protection Promise is valid for the lifetime of the Yale door and window hardware components. Lifetime is defined as the number of years that the product is reasonably expected to last, determined through standard industry testing and taking into account frequency of usage, the length of times that the materials used to create the product are expected to last, and whether or not the product has seen more use than deemed to be acceptable.

Yale is pleased to partner with Polyframe to secure your home. Yale's promise to Polyframe is detailed in the terms and conditions of the Yale Lifetime Security Guarantee.
